Hon'ble J.C.S. Rawat, J.

It has been pointed out that the present applicant is not an actual accused. Learned counsel for the applicant had filed certain papers before this court and he prayed that the identity of the accused may be directed to be ascertained by the Investigating Officer. This court has no jurisdiction to interfere in the investigation. It is, however, made clear that if the applicant makes any application to the court below, the court below may consider for passing the order to further investigate the matter in respect of the identity of the accused or the court below may determine before proceedings the case. Learned counsel for the applicant had not pressed any other grounds.

In view of the above, the petition is disposed of accordingly.

Copy of the order may be supplied today.
